

Notes from Community Engagement meeting Tuesday 8th January 2019 4.30 pm Carlton Colville
Town Council Office

Present:

Councillor Jill Tyler
Reverend Jeremy Bishop – St Peters Church
Rusty Harper – Carlton Colville Community Centre
Stephen Hart – Carlton Colville Scout Group
Craig Rivett, Melanie Vigo DiGallidoro – Suffolk County Councillors
David Peek – Allotments
Ian Castro – IMPACT Detached Youth
Sue Medley – Carlton Colville Brownies and Guides

Apologies: Kay Everett-Day – Carlton Colville Primary School

Quick introductions from everyone and welcome to Sue Medley

Updates:

Scouts Carlton Colville Primary School – Remembrance Day parade was successful at St Peters church, would like to do some work with dementia patients at Carlton Hall, continuing with allotment plot this year

Carlton Colville Community Centre – Burnt Hill football club now on site, request in newsletter for volunteers and committee members

Allotments - started at school and have been allocated a sum of money to make improvements, purchasing seeds etc, tools already in situ should be a very rewarding project

St Peters Church – Centennial Armistices Day was very successful, several schools involved with carols at Christmas etc

Suffolk County Councillors – Locality money available – make requests to Craig and Melanie

IMPACT – Meeting after this one with a young person interested in starting a Youth Council

Guides – 1st Carlton Colville Guides reopened, Brownies also running and Sue also works at Carlton Court and will swap information with that organisation

Update from the Town Council

Coffee shop at Carlton Hall – owner to attend the next meeting to talk about how we can make this a community asset moving forward and also put in newsletter

Outdoor gym equipment coming to Carlton Meadow Park – potential to have some personal training sessions going on once opened around June time

Youth Council – looking to kick this off with a volunteer which has come forward

Christmas lights – a tad disappointing with poor entry take up. The council decided to drive around the parish and select an appropriate winner. Donation to MIND has been sent and a small trophy given to the winners.

Newsletter items – deadline of 25th Jan to go out mid to end of February

Summer fete idea had been shelved due to lack of volunteers

Next meeting Tuesday 2nd April 2019 4.30 pm
