Carlton Meadow Park

Carlton Colville Town Council have donated the money to install outdoor gym equipment into Carlton Meadow park which has been installed in conjunction with Waveney Norse. The addition of fresh air and natural light makes exercising fun and encourages healthy behaviours.

The equipment is Eco-friendly requiring no electricity and is low maintenance.

It is anticipated to promote socialization; with exercise strengthening community and interpersonal relationships which in turn offer support, encouragement and motivation. The activity is free and is open to all. It is hoped it will be a popular addition to the park.

We hosted a Joint meeting with Southern parishes to share ideas and concerns.

Carlton Colville Primary School

The whole school have recently enjoyed an Easter service hosted by St Peter's Church and were welcomed by Revd Jeremy Bishop, our school link Mrs Angela Colbridge and their team. We would like to thank Revd Bishop for his support given to the school and wish him a long and healthy retirement.

The children have had a busy term with Year 1 visiting the local shops to make a purchase and count their change. Year 2 went on a Coastal visit where they visited the Sparrow's Nest and then went on to the Sealife Centre. Year 3 experienced the Hands on Heritage experience at Snape where they whittled a butter knife, wove bracelets and ate food authentic to the era. Year 4 experienced the Time and Tide Museum in Great Yarmouth and Year 5 have been on their annual London Trip; visiting the Science Museum and the Houses of Parliament.

Fundraising by the Friends of the school supports the travel costs for all of these events, meaning we are able to ask parents for a reduced amount. If you would like to assist us with this please support our school lottery.

Carlton Primary School in 1935

Memoirs from Mrs Barbara Challener who (as Miss Smith) joined teaching staff at Carlton School in October 1935

Carlton School was just 4 years old in 1935 and in an almost isolated position surrounded by farm land. Miss Lamb (Head mistress) was in charge of 1st year juniors, Miss Smith 2nd year juniors, and they shared a classroom. The other teaching staff at that time were Miss E Burgess; Miss Frost and Miss P Fuller.

Mrs Challener recalls....any lessons which could be taught jointly, e.g. history, geography, nature, handwork and scripture were taken by me in charge of both classes. There was no hall so PT (nowadays PE) was in the school yard. Regular inspections were held twice yearly (without prior warning) when the PT inspector came to watch your class in action.

The toilets for pupils and staff were built at the back of the school playground. The only difference—we had a key to ours.

Most of the children went home at lunch time, but those who could not brought sandwiches.

I cannot remember the exact date but we had a huge influx of pupils brought from Lowestoft to live in Carlton Colville. Consequently the new school had to be enlarged and we temporarily used classrooms in the old school at the end of Rectory Road.

The War Years

Air raid shelters were built at the far end of the playing field. Each class had its own shelter. These were damp, the smell was awful and we seemed to spend as much time in the shelters as we did in the classroom. Gas masks were carried down; word games were played; stories read and a supply of biscuits and sweets kept ready. There was always the odd nervous child to be comforted.

One afternoon I was dismissing my class when we heard a very low-flying plane, followed by a stream of gunfire hitting the school roof. All the children were well drilled and the cry of 'under your tables' had the desired effect—though it was frightening.

Another morning I cycled to school to be met by a soldier on guard at the gate. I was not allowed to go in for during the night 7 bombs had dropped on our playing field without exploding. About this time we shortened the dinner hour to 12-1pm, which enabled all pupils to leave earlier and get home safely after school.

We also had to share our building with an evacuated London Roman Catholic school taught by nuns. They used the classrooms in the mornings and we had them in the afternoons. This did not last long as the evacuees soon drifted back home.

School dinners were introduced around this time and were delivered in insulated containers. Staff had to erect trestle tables, use the cloak rooms to serve the meals, then collect the dirty dishes, wash up and rush back to the classrooms for afternoon lessons. Thankfully some of the mothers heard of this and came in to do the washing up.

Community Engagement Group

Our 1st anniversary meeting took place on April 2nd. It was attended by representatives of Carlton Colville Primary School, Suffolk County Councillor Craig Rivett, IMPACT detached Youth, Carlton Colville Pre-School, Carlton Colville Methodist Church, Carlton Colville Brownies & Guides, Rosedale Gardens Surgery and Allotments.

The Primary School showed plans for the new long overdue car park which is hoped to be starting in the summer holidays. They are working closely with the Allotments to encourage the children to grow fruit and vegetables. The school also offered a temporary home once the Methodist Church shuts on 31st August.

IMPACT detached Youth were now using their new iPads purchased with funding from Suffolk County Councillor Craig Rivett. It was agreed by all to carry on with these meetings every quarter as they have been very successful.

Allotment Update

Preparations for the Carlton Colville Primary School allotment are now well under way. The existing raised beds and open plots have been cultivated and are ready for planting or sowing seed. There are 20 raised beds outside and 3 in the tunnel, six of those were added by the allotment volunteers funded by the school.

The children are involved in sowing various seed outside and in the tunnel and once germinated they can be planted to continue growing. Already planted outside are first and second early potatoes, red and white onions and in the tunnel tomatoes, melon and cucumber.

The present cold snap has halted more outside sowing but when things warm up work will continue. By the amount of children taking part it has so far been a great success.

WW1 Memorial Benches

Carlton Colville Town Council have donated two memorial benches to commemorate 100 years since the end of World War 1. One bench is at the bus stop on the corner of Rectory Road and one is at St Peter's Church next to Canon Bignold's grave.

During World War 1 Canon Bignold was the Rector of the Parish.

He kept a diary detailing the events that took place during the war.

2nd Carlton Colville Scout Group

2019 has seen a busy start to the year for 2nd Carlton Colville Scout Group, highlighted with the award of planning permission to extend our headquarters in Rectory Road. This means fundraising will be at the forefront of the groups activities throughout the year, so if there is anyone who would like to support us in any way with these activities it would be greatly appreciated.

Throughout the year Beavers, Cubs and Scouts take part in many competitions within the Lowestoft district. We have had a successful start to these competitions with the Cubs placing well in their more recent events and the Scouts picking up a first place for the 3rd time in 4 years at the annual cooking competition.

Both the Beavers and Cubs have taken part in litter picking activities within Carlton in the last few months, with Scouts having planned in a beach clean in May.

More recently the Scouts have linked up with Suffolk Wildlife Trust at Carlton Marshes to arrange the facilitation of a number of activities. Initially the team at the Trust will run sessions for the Scouts to complete their Naturalist badge, with many more badges due to be completed with the Trust in the coming months. This collaboration is one that both the Scout group and Suffolk Wildlife Trust are keen to extend, and has been brought about from the engagement meetings held at the Town Council.

Finally, in March the Scouts visited PGL Bawdsey Manor near Ipswich for a weekend residential break. It was something completely different to what we would usually do, but was an opportunity for the scouts to try some different activities including Fencing, Zipwire, assault courses, and Jacobs Ladder, a terrifying 8 meter high climbing structure.

If anyone is interested in being involved with the group, either as a youth member or an adult keen to give back to the community we would love to hear from you. Please contact David Greenacre, Group Scout Leader on 07761431306.

Respect - Protect – Enjoy

Respect other people

Please respect the local community and other people using the outdoors. Remember your actions can affect people’s lives and livelihoods.

Consider the local community and other people enjoying the outdoors

Respect the needs of local people and visitors alike – for example, don’t block gateways, driveways or other paths with your vehicle.

When riding a bike or driving a vehicle, slow down or stop for horses, walkers and farm animals and give them plenty of room. By law, cyclists must give way to walkers and horse- riders on bridleways.

Co-operate with people at work in the countryside.

Protect the natural environment

We all have a responsibility to protect the countryside now and for future generations, so make sure you don’t harm animals, birds, plants or trees and try to leave no trace of your visit. When out with your dog make sure it is not a danger or nuisance to wildlife, arable crops or other people.

Leave no trace of your visit and take your litter home

Dropping litter and dumping rubbish are criminal offences.

Keep dogs under effective control

When you take your dog into the outdoors, always ensure it does not disturb wildlife, crops or other people by keeping it under effective control. This means that you:

- keep your dog on a lead, or
- keep it in sight at all times, be aware of what it’s doing and be confident it will return to you promptly on command
- ensure it does not stray off the path or area where you have a right of access

Special dog rules may apply in particular situations, so always look out for local signs – for example:

- dogs may be banned from certain areas that people use, or there may be restrictions, byelaws or control orders limiting where they can go
- the access rights that normally apply to open country and registered common land (known as ‘open access’ land) require dogs to be kept on a short lead between 1 March and 31 July, to help protect ground nesting birds, and all year round near farm animals
- at the coast, there may also be some local restrictions to require dogs to be kept on a short lead during the bird breeding season, and to prevent disturbance to flocks of resting and feeding birds during other times of year

It’s always good practice (and a legal requirement on ‘open access’ land) to keep your dog on a lead around farms with arable crops and animals, for your own safety and for the welfare of the animals. Everyone knows how unpleasant dog mess is and it can cause infections, so always clean up after your dog and get rid of the mess responsibly – ‘bag it and bin it’.

Carlton Colville Fuel, or Poor's Allotment Charity

How the charity came into being, and its aims and purpose

The Enclosure Acts of the late 1700 and early 1800s deprived the cottagers of their possessions of small bits of land, which they cultivated, or from which they cut furze for fuel, or grazed their animals.

To compensate for these loss of rights, the Government awarded bits of land to the Parishioners who had suffered from previous Acts, e.g. land cultivation as garden allotments, or for letting. Rents obtained thereby to be used to provide fuel for the poor.

The charity was created by an enclosure award made by the Commissioners appointed in and by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the Forty-First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George III in 1801.

An Act of Settlement was introduced for dividing and enclosing the Common and Heath, Marshes, Fen Grounds, Dooles and Waste Grounds within several parishes of Carlton Colville, Oulton, Kirtley (otherwise Kirkley) in the County of Suffolk and to provide heating for the poor and needy.

Beneficiaries should reside in the Ancient Ecclesiastical Parish of Carlton Colville. This covers an area, bounded by the west side of Kirkley Run, westward along Lake Lothing, Oulton Broad, River Waveney to the boundaries of Barnby and Gisleham to Bloodmoor roundabout, north west of Long Road to the junction with Kirkley Run.

The object of the Charity is to give heating relief or assistance to elderly and to handicapped persons on low income within its boundaries. The Trustees may administer funds for heating relief or other purposes without reference to the Charity Commission. They may not sell land or property without the permission of the Custodian for Charities, nor may they apply any funds for relief for Rates or Taxes, or Public Funds. In giving assistance to any person they are not committed to repeat relief thereafter. The Trustees serve a four year term, and are not paid for their work.

An outing once a year for the residents of Coppice Court and Whitton Court, several of whom are people from Carlton Colville, is paid for by the Trust; a donation is also made towards their Christmas festivities, in lieu of a heating allowance, as they live within the Ancient Ecclesiastical Parish of Carlton Colville.
