

Carlton Colville Community Centre

Has had a reasonably good year. Part of it was under Covid regulations, although the pre-school was allowed to open. Most of our regular users returned to use the centre and we were able to access grants from the government to cover shortfalls in income. We used the grant money to upgrade the lighting in the hall and installed a new security fence. We are looking forward to normal conditions in the coming year.